FAST-PACED SPACE STRATEGY GAME, SPACE TYRANT LAUNCHES ON PC, MAC, AND LINUX

Terrorize the Galaxy for Fun and Profit!

SEATTLE, WA – July 19th, 2017. Independent video game developer Blue Wizard Digital have announced that chicken-nugget-sized space strategy game, Space Tyrant, is now available in Early Access on PC, Mac, and yes, even filthy Linux. Conquer the universe on your lunch break in a galactic roguelike-lite 5X from the guys who made Bejeweled, Peggle, and Plants vs Zombies!

Space Tyrant offers hours upon hours of swift gameplay within its tactical combat and strategic scheming, meaning quick deaths and lightning-fast victories --- no time for cultural victories or diplomacy.

"Space Tyrant has all the family-friendly fun of the games I worked on at PopCap, like Peggle and Plants vs Zombies," said studio boss Jason Kapalka, "but with more alien space armadas and explosive airlock murder."

"It's like a metaphor for modern society or something," adds executive producer Isaac Aubrey, "only with evil bunnies in power armor."

A 10% launch discount is available to gamers who buy the game in it's Early Access launch week. Thereafter, the standard edition of Space Tyrant will be available for $19.99/€19.99/£14.99. The game is currently available on Steam and coming soon to other digital retailers.

In Space Tyrant, you'll find a zero-attention span mega-empire builder where you can enjoy titanic space battles and huge galaxy-wide conquests but not run over your employer-mandated allotment of lunch-eating minutes.

About Space Tyrant

Space Tyrant is a fast-paced roguelike-lite 5X game set in a grimly grimdark future of eternal war. Build a terrifying space fleet, make enemies and disintegrate peaceful extraterrestrials in your relentlessly unpleasant march to total domination!

About Blue Wizard Digital

Founded by Jason Kapalka, who formerly founded some outfit called PopCap, which made puny weakling non-space-conquering games like Bejeweled and Peggle and Plants vs Zombies, before it was acquired by the necrotic empire of Electronic Arts. Blue Wizard recently released the darkly comic sliding block puzzle/ 80's slasher movie tribute Slayaway Camp to Steam and iOS. The Space Tyrant team consists of a crew of gore-thirsting void pirates and psychic mutants barely contained inside a fetid barracks atop a Capitol Hill coffeeshop in Seattle. Sanctions are already in place.
